

Professional Football

Natural talent. Active management

Your talent

At Beswicks Sports we have a dedicated team of FA licensed sports agents to look after you, on and off the pitch.

As a professional footballer, you need active management and the right advice in order to maximise your performance and earning potential.

The team at Beswicks Sports have an international reputation for integrity and a hands-on approach to seeking out the best opportunities for our players, in the UK and overseas.

We have excellent working relationships with the Premier League and Championship clubs. Whether it is negotiating a new playing contract or transfer, protection of your image rights or even an impending suspension or disciplinary matter, our team will be there for you.

Always available

We build solid relationships with our clients and are always available to advise you on opportunities and problems that might arise.

In fact, this can go well beyond the usual role of a sports agent and has included assistance with a wide range of situations off the pitch, including marriage breakdown, motoring offences and moving home, even overseas.

What clients say...

“From a North American perspective, the guys at Beswicks give us the total package. Their knowledge of the football market place is second to none, their connections in the sports world are invaluable.

As important as that is, their commitment to projects, the concern and integrity of their individual partners and agents is even more important as success in our business relies heavily on trust. In addition they are always prepared to go the extra mile...They have become one of us. They just do not come any better than Beswicks.”

Francisco Marcos, Founder and President
United Soccer Leagues

“A big thanks to Darren Long and everyone at Beswicks Sports Lawyers. If Carlsberg did agents they would probably be you.”

Richard Nugent, Football Coach
Author of “Football Raise Your Mental Game”

“The team at Beswicks Sports have proved invaluable to me both in my playing career and in assisting with my international football projects and charitable activities. Their pro active approach coupled with sound commercial advice has helped me to achieve success both on and off the field.”

Salif Diao, Professional Footballer
ex- Liverpool FC, Stoke City FC, Senegal

“Gary Mellor...has been influential in helping us..Gary has given us a lot of good advice and support and it would have been harder without him.”

Brendan Flood, Operating Director
Burnley FC
